Clemmons Presbyterian Church

Believing, Belonging, Becoming and Branching Out

Dear friends,

Have you ever tried to buy good shoes in women's size 10AA? Nope, me either. But I have it on good authority that it is very difficult to do.

We are all now in the same boat as we face Felicia's departure as our director of Christian Education. Your personnel committee and Christian Education Elders, Travis Milam and Stephen Klinger are interviewing folks and reviewing resumes to identify the right persons for an Interim DCE position. Diana Wright from our Presbytery office met with us and presented a quality plan to evaluate the current CE programs and staff, including volunteers, and to plan and visualize what Christian Education needs to look like in the next few years here at CPC. This process will take some time. After this plan is developed and a position description or descriptions written, it will need to be advertised, interviews held and offers made.

Until that time, we have activities and classes, Vacation Bible School, Summer Sunday School, Rally Day and so much more – the size 10 AA gap is pronounced.

What can you do to help? Thanks for asking!

1. Support your Christian education programs and leaders.
Little is more disheartening than preparing lessons and few folks show up.
2. Volunteer to help – from the nursery to Vacation Bible School to Sunday School classes to setting up chairs there are so many ways you can help with Christian Education.
3. Respond to invitations. You may be asked to complete a survey or come to a focus group as we evaluate and plan for the future. If you are asked, please say "Yes."
4. Remember Felicia, the CE leadership and your church in your prayers.

This has always been a congregation that pulled together and moved forward in times of change, and with God's help and guidance, we will always be that congregation.

We can't overstate how important Felicia has been to our congregation, for she leaves very big shoes to fill in many ways.

Faithfully yours,

Bill Hoyle

Christian Education Weekday and Evening Opportunities

Wednesday Bible Class

6:15-7 p.m. (Room 206)

A verse by verse study of books of the Bible. The Book of John is being read and discussed followed by a video-based study by Dr. Ken Bailey. (Burl Shore, leader)

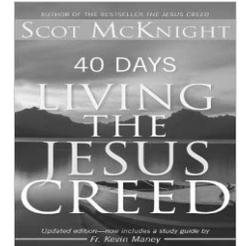

Wednesday Shorts

6:15-7 p.m. (Room 301-C)

A variety of short (4-6 week) courses are offered on Wednesday evenings. "40 days of the Jesus Creed" is the study during Lent. Daily readings and weekly class sessions during Lent teach us how to love God and love your neighbor as yourself. Book is $10.

(Bill Hoyle, leader)

The Men's Group

Sundays 4:30-6 p.m. (Room 101)

Bible study, current issues, grilling and topics just for men have highlighted this group's time together. All men are welcome. (Scott Sheldon, leader)

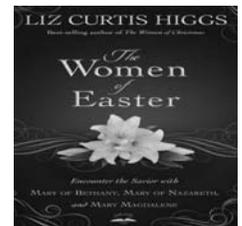

Women's Bible Study Group

Thursdays, 10:00-11:30 a.m. (Room 301-C)

This year the group has been doing studies in 6-8 week units. "Namesake" will conclude in February and is followed by "The Women of Easter" during the season of Lent starts March 2nd. "The Women of Easter" is a study of three women named Mary, each of whom has a life-changing encounter with Jesus. From Mary of Bethany to Jesus' Mother Mary to Mary Magdalene. What a trio. What a Savior! Debbie Hagan leads. Register on line. $10 for the book.

(Debbie Hagan, leader)

Sunday Morning Christian Education Opportunities

Join a Sunday School class for the Spring quarter! Classes for all ages meet each week 9:30-10:30 a.m.

Children's Sunday School

Nursery	Room 210
Preschool	Room 212
Grades K, 1, 2	Room 101
Grades 3, 4, 5	Room 104

The Preschool through 5th Grade classes use "Growing in Grace and Gratitude" curriculum.

Youth Sunday School

Middle School	Room 105	Cathy and Bill Teller, leaders
High School	GOOTH Room	Patrick McElwaine, Penny Welty and Chris and Helen Baucom, leaders

Middle and High School classes engage in study and discussion to connect scripture to their daily lives. "Spice Rack" is the primary curriculum.

Adult Bible Study Class - Room 209

Using the Present Word curriculum to study the "Uniform Bible Lessons", strong Bible foundations and lively discussion characterize this class. The scripture is viewed in the context of its time to find God's message for today.

(Mike Lyons, coordinator)

Special Studies - Room 301-C

The Special Studies Class has studied a variety of topics and issues from theology to Bible study to current issues. The Winter/Spring study is "When Religion becomes Evil" (George Evans, Norm Gleason, and Susan Artz leaders)

Cup of Grace - Parlor

Exploring a variety of topics from Bible study to theology to spirituality, this class freely dispenses grace with discussion. The Winter/Spring study uses video teachings of Dr. Mickey Efirid about "The Passion". (Leaders: Tricia Nielsen, Jane Brookshire, Beth Maclin, Barbara Hurdle)

Parent Fellowship - 301-B

A center of fellowship for parents of children birth through high school, class members are connected by the common challenge of family life. Supporting and encouraging one another while studying a variety of topics, the Winter/Spring study is "Leaving Home with Faith." (Mac Ingraham, Mike Blizzard and Stephen Klinger lead.)

A Note From Patrick McElwaine

Dear Friends,

“You are dust, and to dust you shall return.” What sobering words. Some words have a lightness about them: butterfly, rainbow, laughter. But this simple Ash Wednesday refrain has weight to it: you are dust, and to dust you shall return.

Our journey through the Lenten season begins with these words of Scripture. We will tread the well-worn path to Jerusalem with Jesus and one another. We will celebrate Jesus’ arrival with the crowds and betray him with them, too. We will know the desolation of Good Friday and ultimately arrive at the joy of Easter.

But, we cannot press “fast forward” on this journey. With each step we must linger a bit, contemplating what fresh word the Holy Spirit brings. Throughout this season of penitence and introspection, I pray these words of Thomas H. Troeger will bear fruit in your life:

*Lord, mark upon my brow this sign:
a stark and barren cross
reminding me that though divine
you know my pain and loss,*

*and at the touch of dust and ash
awake my heart to view
how death itself is but a flash
that dies away in you.*

Awaken our hearts again, O God, to the blessed assurance of eternal life through your son, Jesus.

Yours in Christ,
Patrick

Elvis is BACK!!

Mark your calendar for March 25th and purchase your tickets! They are going fast and we expect a sellout crowd. Tickets on sale after worship on March 5th and 12th.

Property Ministry

The property ministry is a team of volunteers, with a wide range of talents and skills, who work together to maintain the buildings, furnishings and grounds of the church complex, and oversee work by outside service providers.

But the team can't do it all. Each spring CPC holds a cleanup morning to spruce up the inside and outside of our campus. This year it will be on Saturday, March 18, from 9:00 to 12:00, followed by pizza.

There will be plenty to do for all, spreading mulch, trimming shrubbery, cleaning up flowerbeds, scrubbing tables and windows, and much more. So take advantage of this opportunity for service and fellowship, and mark your calendars and plan to bring yourselves, along with rakes, wheelbarrows, buckets and sponges, on the 18th.

Property ministry co-chairs Brad Campbell 336-971-7092, bcmablehead@triad.rr.com) and George Evans 336-414-0751, gkevans4@gmail.com) are coordinating.. For planning purposes, please let them or the church office know if you can be there, and pass along any suggestions you have for the "to do" list.

Of course the work of this team goes on year round. Whether you like to work outside, or you have plumbing, electrical, painting or other such skills, CPC needs your talents. If the work of this ministry fits your interests, please let Brad or George know.

CPC Welcomes New Members

Lanie McElwee recently was received into the membership at CPC having moved to the area from Wilkesboro, transferring her membership from the Wilkesboro Presbyterian Church. While in Wilkesboro she joined the Presbyterian Church there where Rob Evans was the pastor. Lanie met Mary McElwee at the Y during the time Rob was filling in during Bill's Sabbatical. Lanie is an Adult Geriatric Nurse Practitioner working at Optum United Health Group. Lanie has three children: Ani - 11, Catie - 9, and Hank-8, all who attend Summit School. In her spare time Lanie enjoys traveling, reading, exercising, and socializing with friends. When time allows Lanie would like to become involved in mission/outreach. Please give a warm welcome when you see Lanie at worship.

MIKE and SUSAN GARMYN recently joined Clemmons Presbyterian and usually attend the 10:45 service. The move to this area occurred after Susan's daughter attended graduate school at Wake Forest University and remained in the area. In Ohio Susan was an office manager while Mike was employed in trucking, a job he has continued here. Susan enjoys walking, reading, is a participant in the Connecting Women's Thursday Study Group, and is interested in some volunteer activities. There are six children in the blended family, who live in various parts of the country - three gals, three guys, and grandchildren. Look for Susan and Mike and give them a warm greeting. They were Presbyterians in Ohio, saw CPC, were warmly welcomed, so they looked no further for a church family.

Fellowship Ministry

The Fellowship Ministry is making changes to the Coffee, Lemonade, Cookies and Donuts format on the second Sunday of every month, and we are asking for your help. We would like church "groups" to volunteer once a year to be sure this fellowship experience happens. Grab a few friends and become a "group".

Here is what you need to know:

1. Your group would be responsible for set up, serving, and clean up (someone in your group must know how to use the dishwasher; we will offer training if you indicate someone needs it) on the second Sunday of your assigned month.
2. Your group would make coffee and lemonade (found in the kitchen) and bring cookies (preferably homemade, but not an absolute!) or whatever snacks the group decides upon.
3. Detailed instructions will be sent to the person designated as chair of your group.

Coffee Hours are a wonderful time to meet people and enjoy fellowship. Please let Susan Preston (susan.preston22@gmail.com or 716-864-6195) know by March 28th if you would be willing to help in serving our congregation in this way. Please include the name of the chair/contact person along with his/her email and any month your group would like to avoid. I will let your contact person know your Coffee Hour month and also the detailed instructions. If you don't have a "group", get me your name and we can create some fun "groups". Remember, you would only have to volunteer one month per year. Many hands make light work. Thank you so much for considering this.

Mission Highlights

MINUTE FOR MISSION

“Is this not the fast I choose?”

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING HELPS US ANSWER GOD’S CALL

The Christian season of Lent is historically marked with fasting, a traditional practice of giving up food and devoting yourself to prayer.

But this isn’t the only type of fasting the Bible talks about. Isaiah 58 describes a new kind of fast, not to give up bread but to share it. Isaiah calls us to “loose the bonds of injustice,” to “let the oppressed go free,” to “share bread with the hungry” and to “invite the homeless poor into our homes.” We are called to offer help to those in need and restoration to those who have been broken down. One way we answer this call is through our gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing.

Our gifts to this Offering helped “loose the bonds of injustice” for Olga Pedraza and others like her who received support in accessing a job after a prison sentence and beating drug addiction. Self-Development of People invests in communities responding to their experiences of racism, oppression, and injustice, and educates Presbyterians about the impact of these societal ills. By investing in those like Olga who have reformed their lives after prison, we help reduce the number of people who end up back in prison.

Our gifts helped alpaca farmers in Peru whose livelihoods were threatened by the poisoning of their water sources. What began as an apparent need for assistance with irrigation grew into a partnership between these farmers and the Presbyterian Hunger Program to support a host of environmental initiatives. Environmental degradation and climate change are primary threats to the world’s hungry and vulnerable, and the Hunger Program’s work is part of our response.

Gifts to the Offering also rebuilt 40 apartments and houses destroyed during the Syrian civil war, so that those made homeless by its violence could return to a home of their own. Presbyterian Disaster Assistance has provided essential support to refugees throughout this crisis, including education for refugee children, emergency supplies for refugees journeying to new lands, and assistance for US congregations receiving refugees into their communities.

Our gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing will do much more than these few examples. They will join congregations all over the country as we seek to answer God’s call and make a difference in the lives of many more people. As we respond through our sharing, Isaiah 58 also provides a promise. As we respond to injustice, feed those who are hungry, and provide places for those without homes, our “light will break forth,” and we shall be called “repairers of the breach, restorers of streets to live in.”

Please give generously.

Let us Pray: God, your call to us is both great and challenging. May the gifts we share bring justice and help to those in need, and may your light break forth in our lives and in the lives of those served through our shared ministry.

Amen.

Music Ministry

Our church has the great pleasure of hosting the Westminster Schola Cantorum choir on Sunday, March 12th at 7:30 pm in our sanctuary. The choir will be performing the music of Mozart, Victoria, Whitacre, Runstead, Esenvalds, and Ives and Todd. Framed by movements of the Mozart Requiem, this program explores spirituality in today's world. The choir will be led by Dr. James Jordan. Please click on the link below to read more about the choir and Dr. Jordan. It's going to be a night of beautiful music! <http://www.rider.edu/events/westminster-schola-cantorum-tour-north-carolina>

Worship Ministry

We are approaching the Lenten Season and there are many opportunities to worship at Clemmons Presbyterian Church. We are preparing our hearts and minds by continuing learning through the various Bible studies rejoicing through music with the Easter Cantata, fellowship at the CPC events and volunteering to meet the needs of our members. Check the church website monthly calendar for events. These are great events to invite friends and family to share this special time.

Personnel Committee

Please join the Personnel Committee in congratulating Rachel Moss on her ten year Anniversary with CPC. May you continue to inspire us for many years to come! And may you always remember how much you are needed, respected and valued! You are a blessing to us each and every day! Happy Anniversary!

Please join the Personnel Committee in wishing a Happy Birthday to Megan Loomis (March 28)! On behalf of Clemmons Presbyterian Church, we wish you a very happy birthday and send you our best wishes for you to enjoy much happiness in your life!
